

MOVING POINTS IN PALLIATIVE CARE 22ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Self Care & Compassion In Healthcare

Tuesday 25 April 2017

Ms Audrey Houlihan is CEO of Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services. She has a HR and Finance background and many years of experience in both the private and public sector. She has Diplomas in Quality and Leadership and Employment Legislation, a BA in HR and an MA in Public Management. Before commencing work with Our Lady's Hospice & Care Services, Audrey held a number of roles in the retail and wholesale industry in Ireland and the UK.

Since commencing at the Hospice in 2001 she has held a number of different roles including Business Manager and Head of HR & Organization Development across both Hospice sites in Blackrock and Harold's Cross. As Vice Chair of the Voluntary Hospital HR Manager Group, she has participated in many employee relations matters at national level. Audrey is a member of the Board of Caritas Convalescent Centre and a member of the Executive Committee of The All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care.

Education & Research Centre

Call 01 406 8810