

MOVING POINTS IN PALLIATIVE CARE 22ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE
Self Care & Compassion In Healthcare
Tuesday 25 April 2017

Ms Patricia Hallahan R.G.N., R.M., B.Soc.Sc., M.Sc., M.B.A., has been the Director of Education, Research and Training at Our Lady's Hospice and Care Service for the last six years. Prior to that she was Director of the Dementia Services Information and Development Centre at St. James's Hospital.

Patricia has many years senior management experience in national and international organisations in the public and not-for profit sectors in Ireland and overseas. Her interests include spirituality and compassion in health care and the planning and implementation of health, education and social care interventions.

Education & Research Centre
Call 01 406 8810